ADDRESSES ROOSEVELT CLUB.

Filley Pleads for Clean State and City Government.

Chauncey L Filley addressed the members of the Good Government Republican Roosevelt Club in Concordia Turner Hall, Arsenal and Thirteenth streets, last night, the subject of the address being, "The Good Government of City and State." In his address, Mr. Filley said that he wanted good government and that he was against all kinds of corruption, Republican and Democratic and that he thought that he would live to see the time when there would be no more of it.

Speaking of national politics Mr. Filley said that in his opinion the Republican party was growing a little careless because of too much success and warned the leaders to beware of this pitfall.

The members of St. Leo's Parish will give a free picnic at Ramona Park tomorrow. During the year of the Pan-American Exposition he placed 7,000 miles of railroading to his credit as a globe-trotter. In London Hootch was troubled with the toothache and a veterinary filled one of his molars with gold, a unique instance of dentistry for dogs.

Up in Alaska Hottch's strength and endurance were proverbial. Once Captain Craine laid a wager of two ounces of gold dust that his dog could draw 500 pounds from a standstill, and won the bet.

Captain Craine bought Hootch from an Eskimo when he was but a puppy. In the Eskimo language "hootch" means whisky. Hootch was buried yesterday. All through the Hunker Creek territory Hootch was known. At Dick Craine's "Last-Chance Trading Post" he was feared as well as respected, for he guarded his master's property.

For months at a time he was Craine's sole companion. Over icy trails, often with
